Expectations of Student Leaders

As a Student Ambassador of Seffner Christian Academy, I accept and endorse the following expectations:

1) I will strive to support the values and mission of our school and to be a living example of the school's Student Handbook, including social media posts both on and off campus. This includes summer break.

2) I am willing to attend meetings as necessary to carry out the duties of my position. I realize my duties extend to collaboration with all other Student Ambassadors and will support their projects and responsibilities.

3) I will attend four out of the five summer meetings for leadership development and activity planning purposes:

Monday, June 10 – 10:00-11:00 am - with Mrs. Shock

Thursday, June 27 - Time TBA - with Mrs. Pope

Monday, July 22 – 10:00-11:00 am - with Mrs. Shock

Tuesday, July 29 - Time TBA - with Mr. Moorer

Monday, August 5 – Time TBA

4) I will be available on Orientation Day, Tuesday, August 6, to serve as needed throughout the afternoon and evening during Elementary and Secondary Orientations.

5) I understand that this position will be demanding of my time. I know I will be expected to attend school-related functions at night and on the weekends when needed. I know I will have to “come early and stay late” as needed.

6) I understand that being a Student Ambassador means I am committed to leading through service to the school community and I do not expect particular privileges because of my position. In addition, I will do my best to keep all academic commitments.

7) If I do not meet expectations as determined by my mentor and school Administration, I can be removed from my position at any time during my appointment as a Student Leader. Any major disciplinary infractions (ISS/OSS) will result in my being removed from my position.

8) I will commit to being an active member of my local church by both attending church services, youth group activities, and serving when/where possible.

Parental Support

Leadership cannot be maximized unless you have significant support. In order to be considered for this type of leadership position, you are required to have your parent's signature representing support of your commitment to this leadership position.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and agree with the Student Leadership requirements and expectations for the summer of 2019 and the 2019-2020 school year.
